Here's What Our Partners Are Saying

"IntelliWriter has been a comprehensive resource for our students. From finding appropriate sources to refining their research papers, this program helps keep our students focused with individualized progress markers."

- Vicenta M. Shepard
Director, Center for Academic Success, Department of Academic & Career Success
Florida International University

"Arkansas State University is using IntelliWriter to improve student writing across the College of Business. We conducted a pilot during the 2020/2021 academic year. Students using IntelliWriter during the semester improved their writing skills, while those that did not use it remained flat. The results had nothing to do with weak vs. strong students as their overall class averages were statistically equal. Students reported that they enjoyed using the platform as well. ~85% indicated they were satisfied and delighted with IntelliWriter. As a result of this impressive study, the College of Business has expanded its' use of IntelliWriter in our programs for the 2021/2022 academic year."
